EMPLOYEE RECOGNITION:
Executive Director Shireen McSpadden and the DAAS Commission recognized and thanked Daniel Pearman from the Public Conservator’s Office for bringing a sense of order and technology to the Public Conservator’s Office.

DIRECTOR’S REPORT:
Executive Director Shireen McSpadden reported on the Mayor’s submission of his budget to the Board of Supervisor’s (BOS) Office which included a lot of great things for DAAS. The first thing Ms. McSpadden was excited to announce included $250K for the senior and disability employment work subsidy program pilot program that has received good reviews on the east coast called, “ReServe”. Next, the Mayor proposed $175K for case management enhancements which will help with employee retention in the DAAS case management program. DAAS and the Department of Public Health (DPH) are considering streamlining the process of conservatorship. Both DPH and DAAS asked for some positions with the aim of serving the community better especially those people who are in a recidivism pattern shifting from a psych emergency hospital program to back on the streets. The Mayor and DAAS is also looking at a Support-at-Home pilot program that Supervisor Eric Marr and a number of our community based providers are particularly interested in trying out for middle income or upper poor people that wish to stay at home safely and are in need of care. The Mayor’s office will give the pilot program $1M annually for the next two years. The Mayor’s Office put a plug in for the Dignity Fund for $6M in year two (17-18). Supervisor Malia Cohen introduced the Dignity Fund Legislation last week at 2% of the property tax so that would be more like $43M in the first year. The Mayor also put into his budget $1.2M of the $2.4M one-time ad back that the BOS gave DAAS for nutrition last year. This will maintain much of the nutrition services that we enhanced this year. In addition to that, the Mayor has put in an ad back for the one time housing subsidy amount that DAAS received last year which was $750K and the mayor elected to back fill that completely and now this is DAAS’s baseline budget. Ms. McSpadden was happy to announce that the Scattered Site Housing contract that has been with the DPH will be moving over to DAAS. The Mayor also put a second deputy director for DAAS into his budget. Ms. McSpadden added that DAAS has grown a lot over the years and it is a lot of work for one person to handle. The California Association of Area Agencies on Aging (C4A) meeting this week and one of the things that they are trying to do this year is enhance the face of aging in California. C4A will be doing a campaign this year to put a positive face on aging to show that there are great things about aging. Ms. McSpadden will be chairing the Education Committee and promoting best practices from every community in California to have a much stronger public presence. On Wednesday, June 8, at the Herbst Theater at 4:00 PM we will be celebrating World Elder Abuse Awareness Day in San Francisco. Paul Henderson from the Mayor’s Office who is also running for Superior Court Judge will be hosting this event.

ADVISORY COUNCIL REPORT/Leon Schmidt
Mr. Schmidt reported that the Advisory Council met on Wednesday, May 18, 2016 and at that meeting the Executive Director Shireen McSpadden attended and shared with the council the services that DAAS provides. Mr. Schmidt announced that the Advisory Council now has 16 members and that the Commission has fulfilled their responsibility of appointing 11 members to the Advisory Council and shared ways to encourage and assist the BOS to appoint their remaining five members. The Advisory Council once again discussed site visits and how many each member should make a year to fulfill their commitment as Advisory Council members. The Education Committee will hold their next training on July 22. Rick Appleby will set up a presentation with UCSF and will be meeting for the first time at the UCSF Mission Bay Campus. The topic for this presentation will be Aging and Mental Health.

TACC REPORT/ Cathy Russo

Cathy Russo reported on the thousands of seniors that attended the big Senior Rally in May. Ms. Russo announced that there was a heavy emphasis on nutrition this year. Nutrition programs for seniors have been frozen, cutback and even cut-out while the numbers of seniors are increasing and will continue to increase each year. Ms. Russo noticed the respect that the Senior State Commission has and what a fantastic resource we have through them.

CASE REPORT/ Vallorie Villela

Vallorie Villela stated that during this time of year the CASE Budget and Advocacy Committee is working very hard to ensure that the Mayor’s Office and BOS is aware of their platform and at the same time they also supporting the Budget Justice Coalition’s platform and the Food Security Task Force. Ms. Villela was happy to hear Ms. McSpadden’s nutrition news for CASE but know it’s not over until the entire budget is approved. CASE will not give up their efforts and will meet with the BOS as proposed. During the Senior Rally CASE hand carried two thousand post cards to the BOS and the Mayor. CASE invited the Commission to a continued education course at the next membership meeting. Ms. Villela reported that the phenomena of bullying is happening throughout many of the senior centers and is becoming more acute. CASE is looking for ways to handle these challenging individuals because they want the senior centers to be available to all people. CASE offers continuing education for the many senior advocate professions. The next presentation will take place on Monday, June 13, at Project Openhand Grocery Center.

GENERAL PUBLIC COMMENT:
Jessica Lehman gave an update on a couple of other budget items that case is working on. The new Support-at-Home program which is a homecare subsidy program and would benefit people who have a little bit too much income or assets to qualify for IHSS but do not have the kind of money that it takes to pay for a lot of private homecare they are hoping the Commission will support this program. CASE is also continuing to work for more funding for the SROs.
