EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S REPORT/Kelly Dearman

Director Dearman welcomed the month of April as Neuro-Diversity month which celebrates unique strengths of the neurodivergent community and shifts public perception from deficit-based views to acceptance to improve workplaces and schools.

In department news, Director Dearman reported that the DAS budget met the $10.5 M goal through staff and services cut. The budget was sent to the mayor; next is BOS. It was also shared that the Dignity Fund will receive the $3 M allocation fund for FY 26-27. This is based on the policy that allocates additional funds based on the city's revenue as determined by the controller. DAS scheduled a meeting with DF OAC and the budget team at the end of April to discuss changes.

In policy work, Director Dearman attended the Annual US on Aging Policy Briefing in DC and met policy makers and spoke about reauthorizing the Older Americans Act which protects Medicaid. Dearman referenced a recent briefing on the economic and health value of the aging network which connects better care coordination to better health care outcomes and lower health care costs, generating $3.47 for every dollar.

In upcoming events, Supervisor Sauter is having a hearing on proposed budget impacts on April 15th. On April 16th 10AM, Supportive Care Collaborative will host a press conference about advance care planning on the city hall steps, where Director Dearman will be one of the speakers.

Kelly will send Commissioner Sklar another email about the Dignity Fund allocation ##. President Spears asked about US Aging events and Kelly listed the Policy Briefing in DC on March 16th and the Annual Conference and Tradeshow on July 18-21 in San Diego. Commissioner Bittner thanked Kelly and spoke on how people with disabilities can also have dyslexia, so environments like school and work can be challenging. Commissioner Bittner asked about a detailed report about budget cuts and for advocacy guidance, Director Dearman responded that a report was sent out and the two will talk offline.

DAS EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH April 2026 to Amanda, who is a Senior Investigator at the San Francisco Public Guardians Office (SFPG) at DAS

- Amanda was not present; the commission will present her the award at the May meeting.

ADVISORY COUNCIL & TACC Report by President Allen Cooper

Presenter Cooper reported on Marin County's new respite program which is church based and primarily staffed with volunteers so it will be low cost. The program is facing challenges with licensing in California so far there are 2 private, Presenter Cooper mentioned IOA as a provider in SF. Presenter Cooper recommended commission to consider dementia care. (fix order)

Presenter Cooper also shared an advocacy opportunity. Due to the California Behavioral Act, funding for behavioral services will be transferred from county to state which will reduce funds from 60M to 30M.

Presenter Cooper also reported that during the last Advisory Council meeting, the budget presentation was well received.

Presenter Cooper reported on a site visit to SHE's Woolf House Senior Center. The building has 120 units and no mobility problems. The senior center is not publicly visible, case management is not available, meals are prepared offsite, fish is disfavored, and it closes at 2pm. Activities include dance exercises twice a week, watching the news in Chinese and BINGO.

Presenter Cooper reported that the SHE's webpage on Woolf House is limited to the monthly menu and activities. Presenter Cooper hopes this is being investigated.

Questions:

Commissioner Jung asked if there will be corrective action on SHE's website, Presenter Cooper explained that this is the second time the Director of Community Partnerships is aware of the issue. Address. Howard and 5th. Commissioner Jung also asked if services at Woolf House are available to non-residents, Presenter Cooper explained that services are available to non-residents however there are few of them; there is another place nearby.

CASE REPORT presented by Andrea Lazorik

Presenter Lazorik was introduced and thanked Director Hinze. Andrea is the Director of Home Match, a homeless prevention program funded by DSHS and Front Porch Community and Services. The program is available to people ages 18+ but most clients are low-income older adults.

Presenter Lazorik reported that during March's meeting, DAS presented DF CNA findings and SPWG and CASE membership asked these key questions:

- Based on findings, how does DAS maintain and expand service levels for DF eligible services with growing demand and budget cuts?
- How will DAS continue to have partnerships with CBOs that are focused providing equitable services, especially with subgroups eliminated and budget cuts?

Presenter Lazorik challenged a quote from Mayor Laurie about making budget cuts now and focusing on core services to avoid difficult choices later by justifying DAS' services as core services and that preventative care is cost saving. CASE requests a list of service providers affected by service cuts and amount of each cut to create a contingency plan on unmet needs. Presenter Lazorik confirmed receipt of Kelly's email of detailed cuts and expressed uncertainty of why DAS did not name all service providers.

Lastly, Presenter Lazorik announced that April's CASE meeting will invite the People's Coalition to collaborate on the contingency plan.

Review and Approval of the FY 2026-27 Area Plan Update for the California Department of Aging. (Presenter Clayter of DAS)

Presented draft in 2 public hearings during February and March. These hearings allowed comments on development and content. Updates reflect key discussion topics from previous presentations such as importance of transportation, ombudsman, DAS efforts on speaking with key communities about updates and budget reductions.

PUBLIC COMMENT

No comment

Commissioner Jung appreciated the presentation and comprehensive updates. The Area Plan looks ready to go.

A motion to approve from Commissioner Jung

The motion was unanimously approved.

- A. Presentation of the Final FY 2025-26 Dignity Fund Community Needs Assessment (Paulo Salta, Fiona McBride, and Adithi Vellore will present this Item).

DAS Staff presented an overview of the DF CAN which included findings and key changes.

Findings revealed that:

- DAS and its service providers are effective in engaging older adults and aging adults with disabilities.
- Service-connected clients have higher needs and face more barriers, older adults with an equity factor have higher needs than peers, and seniors with met needs worry about future needs.
- LGBTQ+ Community data feedback indicates that DAS services should reach targeted needs to increase participation

Key changes to the DF CNA report as a response to public comment were:

- Under Findings and Recommendations, Recommendation #4, assess impact of DAS services and identify outreach opportunities, was added to reinforce department efforts in maintaining and improving client's mental health (pg.49)
- Under Findings and Recommendations, Recommendation #4, collaborate with DPH to promote interagency referral for caregivers, was added in response to discussion on Alzheimer's and Dementia (pg.72)
- In Appendix C, in the Population Survey, summary of findings and providers survey data table were added (pgs. 75-77, 104-118). In Appendix E, reference tables were updated. (pg.161)

For the DF CNA, the next steps are to present to BOS in June TBD. For the Dignity Fund, the next steps are to prepare Services and Allocation plan for FY 2027-28 to FY 2030-31 as well as conduct focused analyses.

Commissioner Pennington, Commissioner Jung, and Commissioner Lum gave thanks to the presenters. Commissioner hopes to apply content to self and peers. President Spears asked what kind of dollars are represented for the financial allocation for districts and Presenter Vellore responded that it is budgeted dollars for Dignity Fund eligible services. On behalf of feedback received, President Spears recommended the city should have more infrastructures for physical activity and Director Dearman agreed that accessible parks are necessary and referred SFMTA as an outreach. Moreover, President Spears asked how this report will engage with the city. Director Dearman said that DAS will speak with departments such as DSHS, MOHCD, DPH, and Rec and Park.
